The book is a pragmatic departure from unachievable idealism and is replete with examples of insightful originality amply demonstrated by the selection of themes and their down-to-earth treatment

"This is the story of Siddhant, a young man, coming back to his town Mathura for his wedding. On the train, he befriends his fellow passenger to whom, he narrates the anecdotes of his life. Therein we get introduced to infatuation... fantasy... dejection... love... wedding... (Well this isn't all, there is a lot within) C'mon! Get on board, where Siddhant awaits you with his fables. Seat No. 51 is a romance based on the aromatic theme of happy things we do in life, and on those remorseful incidents we laugh upon as soon as they pass. This novel is about some school going friends and the "Present turns to past and future turns to present, but the past never changes its stance..." What we do in the present is not a big deal, but after it has gone into the past, it will become something memorable. In our past we had done so many nonsensical things, but now when we remember those days a smile comes to our lips. "Our present is like watching a horror film, and our past is like the experience that we enjoyed in the cinema hall." Words of the past: the story is about a person, who even after completing his graduation didn't gain any sense about his future. Seasons have changed but he still didn't get any idea. Like others he has a life too, like others he too enjoyed his life, but not like others. He went back to his past. His school, his college, his nonsense's, his crushes, his friends, his girls, his enjoyment, silly fights, and his past life... These thoughts made sense to him. "Life means some of years, emotions and notorious things. Behind everything a strange emotional experience will be present." His sensible thoughts on his past make sense to him. So he decided to make it into a book. He made his past into a book. Are you ready to recollect your past?

African drama, I have drawn from oral tradition by including songs and poems which play an integral part in traditional storytelling.

There are many folksongs which were included in earlier versions, but I decided to remove them in the final version because I did not intend to write a musical. There are also some praise poems that I composed for the main character and his father. I studied oral tradition, and I am confident that the praise poems I composed have all the qualities of the real praise poems, and because I could not compose them in English, I, therefore, wrote them in isiZulu with translations in the glossary at the end.
