7th January 2018. Having sat this evening to watch the much acclaimed documentary 'No Hunger in Paradise' I felt it important that we look at what parents, coaches and any adults involved in sport could potentially take away from it. Although the programme was focussed upon the professional game and academy program there are many underlying issues regarding young children's sport and the attitude of adults that surround themselves in it.

Hunger in Paradise: How to Save Success from Failure ...

No Hunger in Paradise- Cuba. I am naming this post after Michael Calvin's excellent book and documentary about aspiring footballers in England, and how their journeys are so heavily romanticized. Less than 1% of all young players actually make it to the glitz and glam of top level football. How many Cubans actually just sit back all day in Varadero puffing cigars and dancing salsa?
